Sermon Notes

John 13:34 “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. 35 By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 3:36 “Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life . . .”

For Reflection & Application:

Monday:

Read John 13:34-35. In what ways is this commandment new and different than anything that had been commanded previously?

Tuesday:

According to John 13:35, why are we to reflect Christlike love? What if we don't? How does this affect our ability to bring life?

Wednesday:

Read 1 Corinthians 13:1-3. Why is love so important?

Thursday:

What would you say is the central message of Jesus we are to share? To whom is this message directed, unbelievers or believers or both? To what Scriptures would you appeal to support your answer(s)? How does John 10:10 relate?

Friday:

Read Colossians 4:5-6. How can you apply this verse when it comes to sharing the message of Christ with others?

Daily Prayer:

Lord help me to reflect your character, especially by loving others as you have loved. Help me to see what Christlike love requires of me. And help me to share your message with clarity, grace, and humility. Amen.
