Sermon Notes

John 6:16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, 17 got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. 18 The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. 19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were frightened. 20 But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." 21 Then they were glad to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

For Reflection & Application:

Monday:

- Read John 6:16-21, Mark 6:45-53.
- To what extent is Jesus aware of and involved in the storm? What evidence do you see from the two accounts in John and Mark?

Tuesday:

- Read John 6:16-21, Mark 6:45-53.
- Why does Jesus allow this frightful storm to happen to his disciples? How does this relate to you?

Wednesday:

- Read Mark 6:51-52.
- According to Mark 6:51-52, the disciples have a problem. What is it, and what does it have to do with the storm? To what extent do you have this problem?

Thursday:

- Read John 6:21.
- According to John 6:21, what is the pivotal moment that triggers the safe arrival of the disciples? How can you learn from it?

Friday:

- Read John 6:21.
- How can you be "glad to take" Jesus in the midst of your circumstances today? What are some things that make it difficult for you?
